1.7. "Rally Kumrovec from '70-tih till today"

The motorsport in Hrvatsko Zagorje occurred for the first time in 1970's. For almost two decades Kumrovec hosted one of the motorsport events with most numerous driver from all around ex-Yugoslavia. It was one of the biggest sporting events in the region with over 200 entrants at the start. Many of them failed to qualify for the finals. With their race finished on Saturday, they cheered for their colleagues on Sunday. Kumrovec was the host of heavy battles for the trophies, but also a popular gathering point for motorsport fans of all generations.

More than 20 years since the last Car and Motorcycle rally Kumrovec was held, Auto Club "Delta Sport" crew decided to revive the tradition. In late 2010 the concept of sprint rally was born and just several months later with a great help of local authorities the event was held. "First Sprint Rally Kumrovec 2011" took place on April 1st and 2nd, and it was the opening competition of the Croatian Rally Championship. Entry list had a total of 35 crews, with 30 cars at start. Beautiful spring day gathered several thousand spectators who witnessed attractive driving and historical win of Hungarian crew Janos Szilagyi and Viktoria Zejda in Mitsubishi Lancer EVO IX.

Janos Szilagyi / Viktoria Zejda, 1. Rally Kumrovec winners

The following year the rally was recognized by national and international crews as one with the most demanding special stages. "Second Rally Kumrovec 2012" was held on March 30th and 31st with 40 crews from five countries at start. Once again Janos Szilagyi and his Lancer EVO IX were too fast for the competition. Navigated by the new co-driver Botond Csanyi, Szilagyi managed to win with more than 20 seconds ahead of ex-European hill climb champion Niko Pulić with navigator Sasa Bitterman. Once again weather was fine and even more spectators than year earlier came to see exciting fight for the podium places. The AC Delta Sport set a new standard for organizing of rallies and Second Rally Kumrovec was declared best Croatian rally in 2012 by Croatian Car and Carting Federation.

Janos Szilagyi / Botond Csanyi, 2. Rally Kumrovec winners

Great expectations for the "Third Rally Kumrovec 2013" were heavy cross for the organizers who once again did a good job. The decision was made to go even further than previous year. Promotional driving and VIP tent on the special stage were introduced as well as rally party with live concert by Euro Art Band. Due to very cold weather attendance was less than expected, but again fair. Start list had a total of 45 crews, with Szilagyi/Csanyi justifying their role of favourites. Unfortunately they had to withdraw at half of the rally due to co-driver illness. Daniel Šaškin and Damir Bruner in Mitsubishi Lancer EVO X took advantage of Szilagyi/Csanyi bad luck and won their third overall victory in career. For the second consecutive year Rally Kumrovec was chosen as the best organized in Croatia.

Daniel Šaškin / Damir Bruner, 3. Rally Kumrovec winners

Year 2014 was the one of the most difficult in AC "Delta Sport" history and due to financial troubles Rally Kumrovec was canceled. A negotiation with couple of potential general sponsors failed, and it was impossible to meet the standard set in previous years. The decision was hard, but it had to be made, since the organizer didn't want to set an average event. Despite bitter taste in the mouth, the plans for next year were made immediately as the words of comfort were arriving from all sides. With one year off a new challenge was in front of AC "Delta Sport" crew – "Fourth Rally Kumrovec 2015". Still consolidating the budget another high standard event was held with 42 crews from four countries participating. The tightest fight for the overall win was fought by previous winners Szilagyi/Csanyi and Šaškin/Bruner. Last special stage was decisive. Szilagyi and Csanyi were 6,6 seconds faster for their third win in Kumrovec. Lovely weather brought many spectators to the first rally of the season. Once again the organizer got good grades from Croatian Car and Carting Federation.

Well positioned on Croatian motorsport map, Rally Kumrovec appealed new partners prior to it's fifth edition. Croatian oil company has become a sponsor and the part of the name of the competition "Fifth INA Rally Kumrovec 2016". The concept of the competition was the same as a year earlier which attracted the crews, 75 in total entered for the rally, and 73 actually arrived in Kumrovec. On Friday, the prologue at Terme Tuhelj Antal Kovacs and Gergo Istovics, as well as Zoltan Lencse and Tamas Hofbauer in Ford Fiestas R5 announced the fight for the top order. Saturday brought a huge invasion of spectators who enjoyed the fight off the crews on the muddy special stages. Tradition of the wins of the Mitsubishi Lancers was continued by Krisztian Hideg and Istvan Kerek in the Evolution IX. Kovacs and Istovics were second-placed with a whole second behind, and Daniel Šaškin and Saša Bitterman in Evolution X were third.

Krisztian Hideg / Istvan Kerek, 5. INA Rallya Kumrovec winners

Many years of organizational experience have been sublimated into the new concept of special stages. Spectators could enjoy more than 500 passing of the rally cars in just a few hours, on a location that already enjoys the cult status among the motorsport fans. A total of 59 crews from six countries appeared at the start of the 6. INA Rally Kumrovec 2017. The organizer has confirmed it's innovator status with the record number of R5 cars at the start list with six, for Croatian opportunities until then unseen crews, with such 200.000 euro worth vehicles. Two attractive super special stages at Terme Tuhelj were won on Friday by the Austrians Niki Mayr-Melnhof and Poldi Welsersheimb (Ford Fiesta R5), who later on, on Saturday, March 4, debuted at the Kumrovec stages and gain the victory. Weather was once again good with above average temperature for the first weekend in March. A couple of thousand spectators attended the event during both days.

Niki Mayr-Melnhof/Poldi Welsersheimb, 6. INA Rally Kumrovec winners

But, the 7th INA Rally Kumrovec started 40 cars, out of which 36 went to the finish line. In the snowy idyllic Zagorje breeze, the spectators has one again showed that Rally Kumrovec is an inevitable station of the domestic championship. The title was defended by Austrian Nikki Mayr-Melnhof, who's codriver was Thomas Zeiser for this occasion at the Ford Fiesta R5. Immediately up to them were the current Croatian Champions Krisztian Hidek and Istvan Kerek with Škoda Fabia R5, and third place was won by veterans of the Croatian rally, Zoran Rašteggorac and Damir Bruner with Mitsubishi Lancer Evo IX.

Niki Mayr-Melnhof/Thomas Zeiser, 7. INA Rally Kumrovec winners

Eight edition of Rally Kumrovec took place with longer Itinerary. In Zagorska Sela new round Special Stage was set, the one in Kumrovec was completely changed and Prologue at Terme Tuhelj was a part of Itinerary. The Victory went to Austria for the third consecutive Year. The fastest after eight Stages were Hermann Neubauer and Bernhard Ettel in Ford Fiesta R5. Rok Turk and Blanka Kacin from Slovenia in Hyundai i20 R5 have won second place, while Antal Kovacs and Gergo Istovics of Hungary in Ford Fiesta R5 were third. A total of 51 crews from four countries have started and 36 made it to the finish. A very first day at Terme Tuhelj announced that Year 2019 will be record one regarding the Audience show up. Weather was fine during the Saturday's Stages, which have attracted about ten thousand Spectators.

Hermann Neubauer/Bernhard Ettel, 8. INA Rally Kumrovec winners

Ninth edition of Rally Kumrovec has gathered 68 crews from 8 countries. For the first time the crews from Poland and Slovakia came, and Jeanette Kvik took the longest trip to take part in the rally as a co-driver from Denmark. Strong pace was set from the very first Special Stage by Simon Wagner and Gerald Winter in Skoda Fabia R5 Evo. At the finish of the rally they've had almost 2 minutes of advantage in front of brothers Lukasz and Tomasz Kotarba from Poland which were driving Citroen C3 R5. Third place with almost 3 minutes of gap was won by Slovaks Vlastimil Majercak and Pavol Kusnier in Skoda Fabia R5 Evo. The competition was held just a week prior to lockdown due to pandemic caused by new corona virus and 9. INA Rally Kumrovec was sporting event with highest number of spectators in Croatia in whole year 2020.

Simon Wagner/Gerald Winter, 9. INA Rally Kumrovec winners

The crews arrived in Kumrovec for the tenth time in a new time window. The event was rescheduled from March to September due to the WRC Croatia Rally, partially held on section from Zagorska Sela till Kumrovec. Warm up for the competition was marking the tenth Anniversary with a commemorative ceremony at the renovated Social and Cultural House in Razvor. It was nice to see most of the winners of the first nine editions of the rally in one place, but also the most creditable partners who helped organize the event throughout the years. They were all assigned commemorative statues. Competition followed at well-known special stages in Terme Tuhelj, Zagorska Sela and Kumrovec. During Friday and Saturday, Hermann Neubauer and Bernhard Ettel in Ford Fiesta Rally2 were dominant - they didn't drop the lead from the first to the last stage. The dominance of Austrian crews which lasts from 2017. has continued. Only in one of the eight special stages, the best time was set by Hungarians Antal Kovacs and Gergo Istovics in a Ford Fiesta R5. In the end, they won second place in the overall standings, ahead of the Austrian crew Peter Eibisberger - Claudia Maier in Ford Fiesta Rally2.

Hermann Neubauer/Bernhard Ettel, 10. INA Rally Kumrovec winners

With the 11th Kärcher Rally Kumrovec and a new title partner, a new decade has opened. 68 crews took part, and for the first time a crew from Slovenia climbed to the top step of the podium, achieving the fastest times on all special stages. Second were Antal Kovacs and Gergely Istovics from Hungary, while third place was taken by Bulgarian crew Ignat Isaev and Milan Iliev.
